Big CV Trail and Saddle Club horse show is next weekend

ABOVE — THE ANNUAL Carmel Valley Trail and Saddle Club Horse Show on Labor Day weekend has reached such large proportions that there is something of interest for anyone who is interested in horses. At last year's show, one of the entrants competes in the Western Competition of working cowhorses.

LEFT — IN ADDITION to the many Western classes, for the past several years there has been keen competition in English riding. Showing beautiful form, this rider puts her jumper through the paces during last year's show. Events begin at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, August 31, and will be continued throughout the day, and on Sunday, September 1, also. The traditional ranch breakfast will kick off Sunday, with chow served from 6:30 a.m. at the Trail and Saddle Club grounds at the end of East Garzas Road.

Special resort and Village shopping supplements included in this issue.

DEL MONTE PROPERTIES is currently renting space in the Valley Plaza Community Shopping Center, scheduled to be built on the corner of Ford Road and Carmel Valley Road. The corner and its relationship to the Community Center is clearly visible in the right center of this aerial photograph by George T.C. Smith. Olaf Dahlstrand of Carmel is the architect for the Center which will be under construction, hopefully by next summer, if not sooner, according to Frank Reiser at Del Monte Properties.

Architectural drawings and site plans which will be presented to the Planning Commission will appear in next week's Outlook.

Mr. Reiser said that many inquiries about space have been received by the office from local residents and that a major oil company had already signed.

Leader needed for Boy Scouts

Although Carmel Valley Boy Scout Troop 127 has a great many helpers and a capable assistant it will have to be disbanded if a Scout Master can not be found.

Anyone who is interested contact Lou Gardner at 659-2935 or Ralph Updike at 659-4435.

Tularcitos to mail schedules

Letters are being sent out to parents of Tularcitos students advising them of their children's schedules. Staggered starting times will begin on the first day. Letters will be mailed during the last week of vacation and any parent who does not receive one before the first day of school may check with Mrs. Raymond at the school office (659-2778) to find out what time his child is to begin class.

The office at Tularcitos School will be open weekdays from now until the opening of school September 10. Hours are from 8 to 4 p.m. Any new residents are asked to please register their youngsters before the first day of school if possible.

PG & E extends natural gas to more customers

Out of the original 340 dwellings which were included in the P G & E natural gas conversion in Carmel Valley, about 100 individuals have not yet hooked up with meters to their homes, according to Claude Hicks of the Carmel P G & E Office. He reminds Valleyites that cool weather is very rapidly approaching and since installations must have the building inspector's OK before service can be completed, don't wait until the last minute.

Only about nine hookups a day can be completed, and next month there will be a number of additional ones being added on Laurel Drive.

About 100 installations will be served on Laurel Drive and Country Club Drive, Hicks said. Excavation and hookup will be completed in September on Laurel Drive and then the crews will move on to Country Club, Hicks added.

Surveys have been done on Rancho Road, Boronda and Garzas Roads and letters have been sent out to the residents advising them of the advance deposits.

Women's Club plans luncheon

Carmel Valley Women's Club will hold the first meeting of the new season on Wednesday, September 4, at Rancho del Monte Resort. Luncheon will be served by the pool and members and guests are invited to arrive at noon.

The Barracuda Swim and Diving teams will present an exhibition program and an entertaining film will follow the business meeting.

For luncheon and baby sitting reservations call Mrs. Paul Anthony, chairman of the party, at 659-2034, or Mrs. James Cecka - 659-4040.

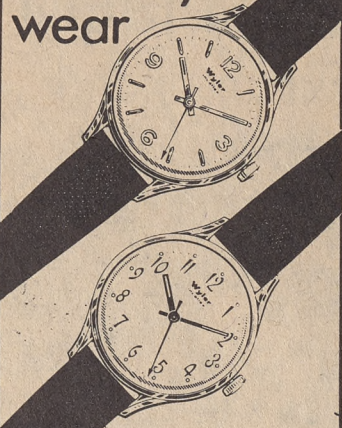

Valley Chamber meets Sept. 5

Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of directors will meet on Thursday, September 5, at Rippling River Resort. Members are asked to be there promptly at 12 noon and any local business man is welcome to attend.

Reservations may be made by calling Rae Black, secretary of the Chamber, at 659-4253.

The engagement of Barbara Branch McCulloch of Bel Air and Willard Arnold Bradley of Carmel Valley has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paxton McCulloch of Los Angeles (Bel-Air).

Barbara is the sister of Mrs. Randolph Harrison (Mary McCulloch) who is currently honeymooning in Europe, Robert Paxton McCulloch, Jr. of Manhattan Beach, and Richard McCulloch of Bel-Air.

A graduate of Westlake School for Girls, she attended the University of Southern California.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold S. H. Bradley of Carmel Valley. He is a graduate of Robert Louis Stevenson School of Pebble Beach and will be a senior at California State Polytechnic College.

The couple share a long time interest in equestrian activities and both participated in the recent Pebble Beach Summer Horse Show. They plan a wedding in December to be held in Southern California.

EDITORIAL

Much has been written in newspapers and magazines and commented upon in radio and television concerning the dress of the hippie element and how unattractive an atmosphere this can create for business. In Carmel, laws were enacted to control loitering and how long persons could sit on a bench in the park...and again much comment about the unkempt appearance of the undesirable element.

Look ye to your raiments

We agree that the stringy straggly hair and splayed dirty bare feet are far from an appetizing picture to view...

But on the other hand...have you ever looked at some of the tourists?

It seems just as incredible that they can allow themselves to be seen in public in some of the outlandish get-up they assume.

The size 18 1/2 female rear-end poured into a pair of shorts with a wild furry flower-bedecked hat topping all, was almost enough to make several local residents choke on their lunches the other day.

It seems if we're concerned about the appearance of Carmel as it looks to the visitor...that visitor can afford us the courtesy of attire that is in reasonably good taste.

PERSPECTIVE

THOSE WERE THE DAYS DEPT. A menu circa 1871-1884 was found by Johnnie Pray, gardener at Los Laureles Lodge, revealed some pretty fancy dining at little expense during the Barbary Coast of old San Francisco.

At the Clipper Restaurant, 311-313 Pacific St., you could feast on Porterhouse or tenderloin at 20¢ a serving. Pig's feet "well sauced" were 10¢ and stewed beef and onions, lamb chops, baked salmon, beef a la mode were also listed among the many 10¢ entrees.

Hot cakes, flannel cakes and corn batter were 5¢. You had a choice of apple, peach or cranberry pie at 5¢; ditto rice, tapioca or sago pudding.

You could order a bottle of California claret at your table for 20¢; a half bottle was 10¢, white wine, 25¢ and ale or porter 15¢ a bottle. A glass of beer was 5¢.

It was only fair to warn customers that credit "in all cases is positively declined" and "disputes with waiter or dissatisfaction must be settled at the bar."

Champ gardener of Carmel Valley, judging from his long list of awards at the County Fair, is Charles Dawson, Carmel High Adult School principal. Produce from his gardening hobby, which is all it is, he claims, scored seven firsts, nine seconds and six thirds. Dawson fruits and vegetables winning first place ribbons, include apricots, garlic, plums, New England pumpkin, young berries, boysen berries, winter Nellis pears.

Attention, baseball fans. Another chartered bus will be heading for Candlestick Park to see the San Francisco Giants clobber (it's hoped, hoped) the Los Angeles Dodgers Sept. 1. Instigator of the expedition is Charles Wall. All interested in joining up may call him, 624-2080, or ask any Carmel Valley Lions Club member for information.

"The American Heritage" was subject of a talk by Steve James of Salinas, former Kiwanis lieutenant governor, to Carmel Valley Kiwanis at its Tuesday meeting at Los Laureles Lodge.

He cited "16 ways to destroy the United States," such as manipulating the news, "sponsor unlimited government spending..."

Carmel Valley Lions Club purchased a 4-H lamb at Monterey County Fair, it was announced at Wednesday night's meeting at Los Laureles Lodge.

The lamb, purchased for $43.30, was raised by Phil Courdrey's daughter, a member of CV Carmelo 4-H Club.

Dick MacKenzie also bought two 4-H lambs and Bowers Pharmacy another.

Al Koneigslieb of Gard-N-Yard Service was installed as a new Lion by Vice Pres. Tom Bordonaro.

The Rhyming Philosopher

ARMAGEDDON

The fearful times we're living in today
With war or threats of war aimed at our throats,
I'm thankful it's not me that must portray
Or even guess just what this trend denotes.

I'm grateful that decisions are not mine
To counter with the riots in the street,
Or regulate the law and so define
Who's right, who's wrong, when justice brooks defeat.

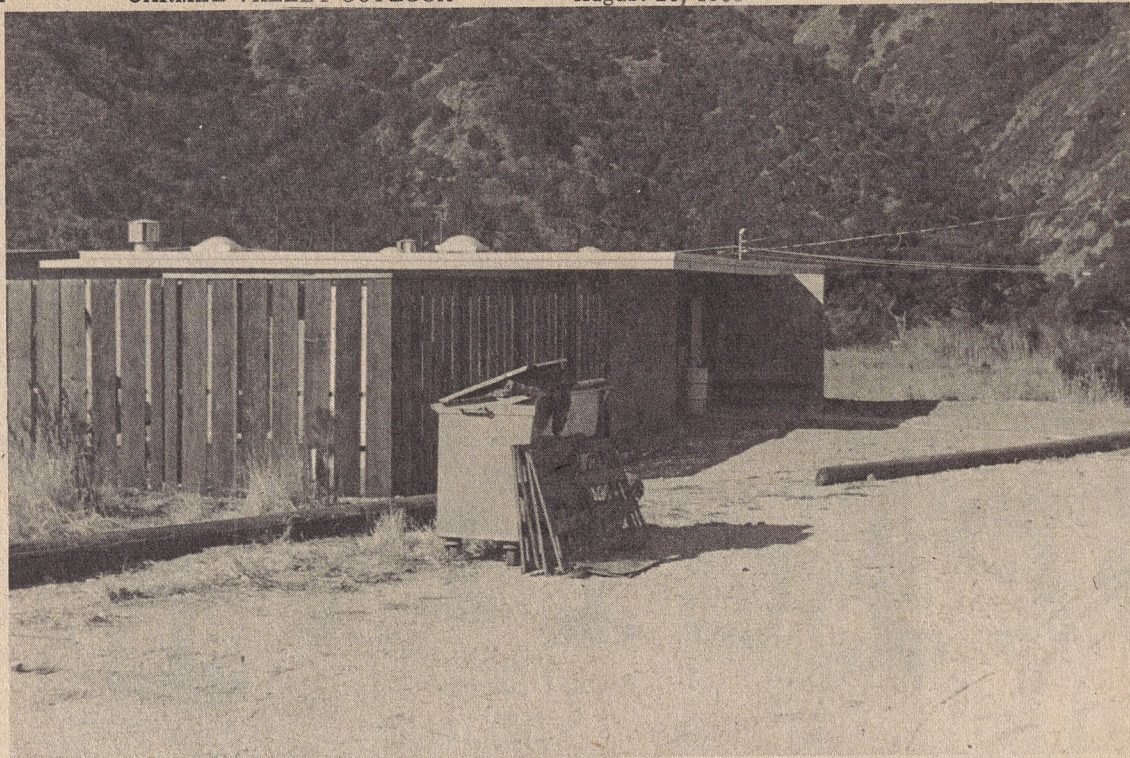

Though life itself gets cheaper by the hour,
Yet medicine has lengthened out its pace,
While transportation furnishes the power
To hurl us off this planet into space.

They say the population soon will surge
To where there won't be even room to stand;
And what with choking smog we'll get the urge
To take the bus to some celestial strand.

I'm glad that I was born, and still intact,
Before they cluttered up the atmosphere,
Which makes me doubly grateful for the fact
A hundred years from now I won't be here!

The bath house at the Community Pool is a sorry looking edifice, badly in need of landscaping. Upgrading of the septic tank system is not so visible but of even greater importance.

Community Center has problems to solve

(This is the second of a three-part series dealing with the Carmel Valley Community Youth Center.)

PROBLEMS OF THE CVCYC TODAY

The problems of the Carmel Valley Community Youth Center at the present time can be classified into three general categories: Operational, financial and those in regard to facilities.

OPERATIONAL

The board of directors of the center is responsible directly or indirectly for development and maintenance of physical facilities (buildings and pool) for the program for youth and for the financing to provide both of the above. This is a formidable task for the 15 members of the board of the merged corporation described in last week's article.

Ideally, this board would provide the leadership for committees to carry on the detailed responsibilities necessary for most efficient operation. Many members of the board represent organizations in the valley who use the building and/or have been interested in support of and assistance to the Center.

The board is grateful for the help that these organizations have given to the center throughout the years and hopes that members of the organizations as well as other interested individuals in the community will be active in the committees to be formed.

FINANCIAL

The center has no continuing, assured financial support. The operation and maintenance of facilities, payment of the mortgage and funds used for program are all derived from voluntary contributions by individuals, businesses and organizations, by revenue from the swimming pool surcharge (15¢ per swim refunded by the school district to help pay the mortgage) and fund raising activities conducted by the board and youth groups. The operation of the swimming pool through agreement with the Carmel Unified School District is financed through recreation funds of the School District at a cost in excess of $10,000 per year.

A minimum of $450 per month is necessary for fixed expenses (mortgage of $173, utilities, custodian, maintenance, youth director, etc); this does not include funds for youth activities, major repairs or improvements.

A budget of $8,000-$10,000 may be anticipated for the coming year to adequately handle necessary expenses of the merged corporation as to facilities and program. This figure will vary depending on the amount required for major repairs to the main building and the septic tank system of the bath house, but does not include funds for any major improvements.

FACILITIES

Almost anyone who has attended a function at the center is well aware of the shortcomings of the present building and equipment. It is sadly in need of paint, landscaping is incomplete, paving in front of the building is non-existent, the kitchen is inadequate in size to serve most groups which meet.

In addition, the grounds of the pool are almost entirely undeveloped, the sewage disposal system (septic tank) is grossly inadequate and there are problems with the heating and filtering system.

Comments such as "Wouldn't it be nice if there were a wading pool for tots?", "How about some picnic tables and play equipment?", and "Why can't we have an addition to the building?" are heard almost daily. What it all adds up to is money or the lack thereof.

SUGGESTIONS FOR DEVELOPMENT

The following are a few ideas proposed by the board for development of the grounds and buildings if funds are available. The more immediate needs seen (not necessarily in order of importance) are: complete entry wall and planting area per revised plan, paint outside of building, paint bath house and sheds at pool. New septic tank drainage field, bring existing building up to building code in preparation for eventual expansion.

Future needs include: expansion of present building, paving and parking spaces, improvement of kitchen facilities, general landscaping, improvement of pool patio, addition of wading pool, paint interior of building, fence yard area for storage, add picnic and play facilities and improve snack bar facilities at the pool.

The expansion of the building might eventually include space for a lounge, craft center, recreation room, rough work shop, meeting room and stage.

Some of these may never be realized, none of them will come immediately or easily, but they are improvements which may fill a need for the community of Carmel Valley.

CORO FOUNDATION REPORT

The recent Coro Foundation Report on incorporation feasibility cites the need for improved facilities and suggests way of obtaining them. "There is a need felt for more recreational facilities for Carmel Valley youth. Certainly a municipality would have more organization and resources to respond to this need than now exist. Concern over this issue favors incorporation; other means, however, could also be used to implement recreation plans. Expansion of the present Community Center and formation of a recreation district are two alternatives."

WHAT IS THE SOLUTION?

Inasmuch as the possibility of incorporation is not seen in the near future and there is not at present a proposal for the formation of a recreation district, the expansion and development of the present Community Center seems to be the answer.

Next week: a plan to start to meet our objectives.

ones are" provided the fishing excitement as well as visits to many of the islands where they explored old shacks deserted by miners. The Valleyites drove to Vancouver and took the Ferry. Their return south was made following a train trip from Prince Rupert to Jasper National Park where they enjoyed the beauty of Banff Springs and Lake Louise.

HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY

The Illkai Hotel on Waikiki Beach provided a magnificent view of Diamond Head, the yacht basin, and the beach for Lt. and Mrs. George Thayer of Sage Road. Jackie flew to the Islands to meet George who has been in Vietnam since December.

During their memorable week they toured the pineapple fields, visited the Arizona Memorial and spent each moment exploring out of the way "non-touristy" island beauty spots in their rented car.

After a week that was all too short, George returned to Vietnam until December and Jackie to the Valley where Mrs. Thelma Graham and children of Pacific Grove had remained with the Thayer children, George, Jenny, Ginnie and Jim.

NEWEST THYSTRUP

Recognized as the smallest sheriff's deputy at the Monterey Sub-Station is Mathew Christopher Thystrup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold "Hap" Thystrup of Valle Vista Drive. Mathew who arrived at 8:30 a.m., August 9, at the Community Hospital, weighed 9 lbs. 3 oz. He was welcomed by his brothers, Michael, Jim, Richard. His grandparents, in Placerville, are Mr. and Mrs. Max Thystrup and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lauritzen of Chicago, Ill.

HOUSE GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cross of Via Contenta have had as their houseguest, Bob's mother, Mrs. Andrew Cross, of Chicago, Ill, who was making her first visit to the Valley. Accompanied by her granddaughter, Pamela, Mrs. Cross flew to Ventura for a week to visit with her daughter.

SWIM JAMBOREE

Parents and friends filled the bleachers at the Valley Swimming Pool on Friday to watch the youngsters who were completing the second session of the Summer Recreation Swim Program sponsored by the Carmel Unified School District compete for ribbons.

Beginners, advanced beginners, and intermediate classes were awarded cards signed by Dorothy James, representing the Carmel-by-the-Sea Chapter of the American Red Cross and their swimming instructor, certifying that they had met the necessary requirements for the class just completed.

Capt. (USA ret.) George Clifford, president of the Community Center Board gave a brief discussion on the financial status of the pool.

Pat McGibney, diving coach who served as master of ceremonies, presented the $25 Savings Bonds to Christine Bottaro and Rick O'Brien. The awards are made following each session by the Carmel Valley Women's Club, the CV Kiwanis and the CV Lions.

In addition to relay races and life saving exhibitions, individual ribbons were awarded to the following members of the diving classes judged by Barbara Largent, Kathy Bingham and Sandi Sweiss.

Recipients of First place ribbons were Scott Green, Amy Brock, Rogan Hattan, Molly Mac Ginnis, Ricky Wright, Kim Gregory, Shane Hattan, Becky Brock, and Nikki Nedeff.

Second place winners were Matt Sherman, Bob May, Tammy Dibble, Andy Haslett, Garth Hattan, Scott Sweiss, Kim Neill, Sue Caswell, Mike Brock, and Gail Fry. Third place spots were won by Jessica Fraties, Duane Marzi, Tim Tucker, Camille Stewart, Debby Dix, Betsy Haslett, Scarlett Hattan, Zane Gregory, Isabel Collas and Marleny Collas.

GOOD NEWS

More good news from former Del Rio Road residents, Mr. and Mrs. William Isaacs. Barely had they moved into a new home in Walnut Creek when received word of another promotion for Bill with the Pfizer Pharmaceutical Company. They hurriedly started packing for their move to Sacramento where he is the new division manager.

Well known on the Peninsula, Bill was active in the Monterey J.C.'s, the CV Lions Club and St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church.

Four leading photographers to exhibit at

Works of four leading Oregon photographers will be featured in a new exhibit at Carmel Photography Center and will open with a public reception Thursday evening, Aug. 29, from 8 to 10:30.

Carmel Photography Center in Sunset Center, 8th and San Carlos, is a gallery sponsored by Friends of Photography, Inc., a non-profit organization, headed by Ansel Adams as president, whose aim is furtherance of West Coast photography.

The four noted Oregon photographers are Bernard L.

Freemesser, Alfred A. Monner, Gerald H. Robinson and Elmar Wefers, all of whom have exhibited and published nationally.

ALFRED A. MONNER

Monner, a photographer for the Portland daily newspapers since 1937, has had photos published in Life, Time, Look, National Geographic, Aperture and others, plus illustrations in many books.

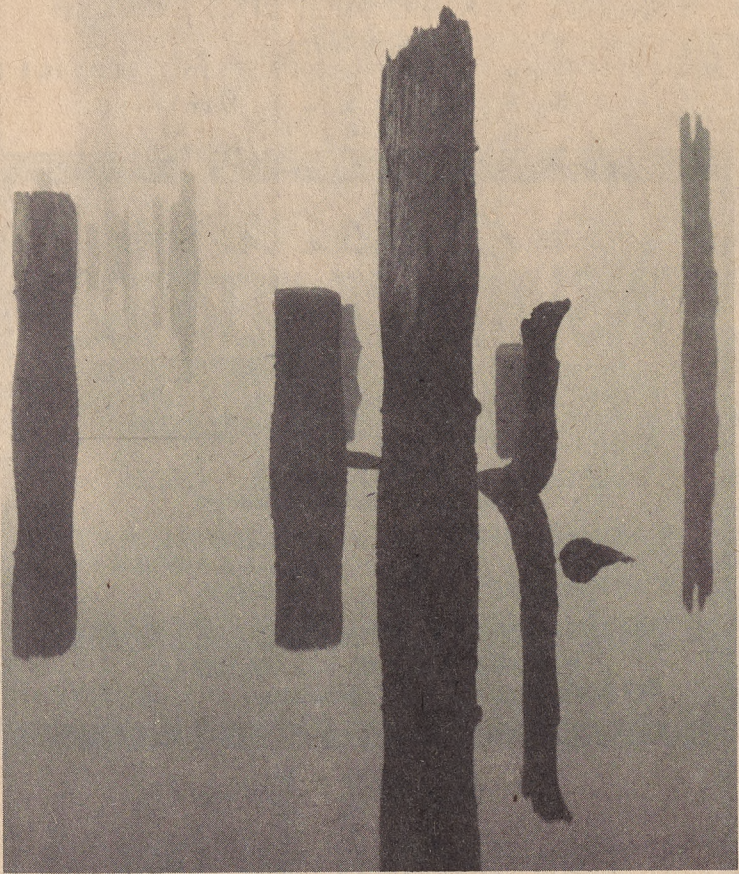

His works have appeared in 21 major shows, chiefly in the Northwest, but also in invitational shows at the George Eastman House, Rochester, N.

Y. His prints are in the permanent collections of Portland Art Museum, University of Oregon Art Museum, E. B. Crocker Art Gallery, Sacramento, and Eastman House.

BERNARD FREEMESSER

An associate professor of photo journalism at the University of Oregon, Freemesser was with the Eastman Kodak Co., Rochester, before moving West as technical director of Northwest Photographic Illustrators, doing TV documentaries and magazine work.

Past president of the Oregon Press Photographers Association, Freemesser is currently chairman of the Society for Photographic Education, an international society of photography educators. A list of his extensive exhibits, publications and research fill three pages.

GERALD H. ROBINSON

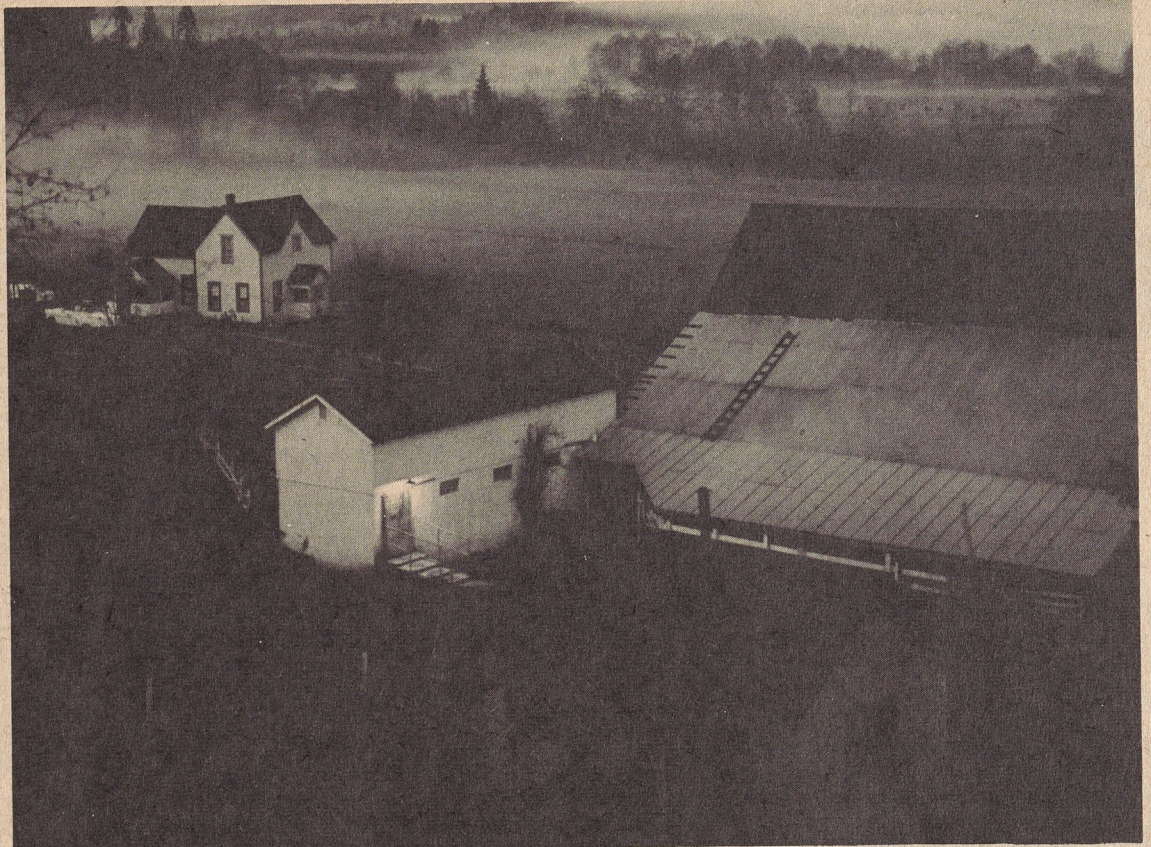

Robinson, a practicing attorney in Portland, has also earned a name as a well-known Northwest photographer. He has instructed photography at the Museum Art School and at the University of Oregon Photography Workshop.

He has participated in 15 group shows and had four one-man shows as widely separated as Massachusetts Institute of Technology and University of Oregon Museum of Art. His publications vary from Aperature to Popular Photography.

ELMAR WEFERS

Elmar Wefers, a native of Germany, is another leading Portland photographer. He is in demand as a workshop participant, appearing with Brett Weston, Minor White, Imogene Cunningham and others. He has exhibited in U.S., Europe and the Orient.

MRS. ROSETTA SMITH of Carmel Valley, an instructor at Monterey Peninsula College, is shown teaching a manual typewriting class, one of several business courses she will instruct during MPC's fall semester. Typing classes - beginning, intermediate and advanced (including practice on electric machines) - are among the most popular at the college, attracting not only business and secretarial majors but those who want the skill for personal use. The fall semester will begin September 10.

Garden Thoughts

by Salih Mehdy

of the Oleander Garden Shop

Autumn is encroaching on us little by little, and this sets up certain physiological changes in our trees. It is especially noticeable in fruit trees and deciduous shade trees. Leaves have started to fall, but before falling they give to the mother tree whatever is still good in their tissues. Plants have begun to ready themselves for the change in the weather, and it is wise not to stimulate them now with fertilizer rich in nitrogen. This will encourage the plants to put out new growth, which will not have time to harden up before the rigors of winter come.

BREATH FOR ROOTS

It is a pity that so many shrubs and trees can never reach the climax of their life, which is to bloom and bear fruit. Poor drainage is the arch enemy. Just remember this basic fact: the roots breathe and they require oxygen. I am aware that this fact has been repeated many times in this column, and in all other garden magazines. It is so important that it should be repeated.

When you pour water in the basins around plants, that water should not stay a long time around the roots in its free form. Some of it will be absorbed by the soil, but the soil has only a certain capacity to absorb water. The extra water beyond this limit should move away. If it has no way to do this, the roots are in trouble and plants start to show a decline. Fill the hole where the tree (or shrub) will be planted with water and study its downward movement. If it is slow, that means that you have poor drainage at that spot. Deepen the hole two feet or more and widen it the same. Discard the dug-out soil and replace it with loamy soil of good drainage ability. The plant will have a real chance to live and grow and please you.

When you clean petunias of dead flowers, use your fingernails and pluck out the parts which look like a cup, right under the colored parts. Seeds are formed inside that cup and their formation weaken the plants.

Fall is the ideal time to plant a lawn or to reseed an old one.

Preparing the ground well ahead will give you a beautiful, healthy green lawn to enjoy.

EGG PLANT

This year I planted again six eggplants, each in a 5-gal. can, and the other day I had the pleasure of harvesting six tender eggplants and cooking them myself. A flat tray was oiled and slices of eggplant were arranged to form the first layer. Two pounds of ground chuck meat was spread over this. A chopped head of onion was scattered over the meat. Salt and garlic powder were sprinkled over, and one-half can of tomato sauce. Then another layer of eggplant, and the other half of the tomato sauce. I covered the tray with another tray, and baked it in a 350 oven.

FLOWER SHOW

A garden event of interest which will soon be here is the Carmel Valley Flower Show, now in its seventh year. The theme this year is "Autumn Magic," and it's a change to hold it in the fall instead of the spring. The date to remember is September 7, 1 to 7:30 p.m., at Tularcitos School. Everyone is welcome to attend and exhibit, and admission is free.

Camera Club to meet Sept. 5

The Padre Trails Camera Club will meet at eight o'clock on the evening of September 5, in Brey Hall at Carmel High School.

The monthly P.S.A. contest will include both pictorial and nature subjects. Officers for the coming year will be nominated.

The program of slides made by members of the club, and put together by Galyn Hammond for showing at the Monterey County Fair, will be presented to the club.

At the meeting on August 15, Mr. Richard M. Garrod judged the club contest, and awarded first, third and fourth places to Mr. Arthur T. Thorsen. Mr. Edwin M. Brooks was given second place. Of the four honorable mention places, Galyn Hammond won two, and Mr. Frederick Capen and Mr. Arthur T. Thorsen were each awarded one place.

The club welcomes visitors

Keeping Room moved to new Pilot Rd. location

Dru Dunn's Keeping Room has moved to its new location in the former Thunderbird book shop on Pilot Road, and already delicious spicy smells are wafting out across the air.

Much of the colorful decor of the former Keeping Room has just been picked up and moved bodily into the new location, and the interior has been set up to make browsing, as well as buying, a delight for customers.

The bin for the colorful dried flowers which are a trademark of the Keeping Room has been located so that people may look and cogitate at their leisure.

Gourmet foods will be located in a separate section and behind the scenes packing and wrapping are in special rooms to keep them apart from the shop.

Foods will be served both indoors by the fireplace and in the patio. Special round tables and drum chairs have been designed by Dru for eating. Meals will be served beginning on September 2, with the menu featuring different kinds of Quiche Lorraine.

Certificates awarded in medical assisting

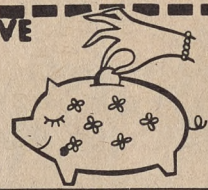

Certificates for completion of the Monterey Peninsula College program in medical assisting were granted to Elizabeth Warmington of Carmel Valley, Maureen Kimball of Carmel Highlands and Mary Margaret Simmons of Pebble Beach.

'Alice' to play at Tantamount

Who said the Dodo was extinct? There's one right here in Carmel Valley. A puppet, that is. One of the 60 fabulous puppets that Alice meets in "Alice in Wonderland" on stage at the Tantamount Theatre when the Geddis and Martin Company of Acting Puppets brings Lewis Carroll's immortal nonsense to life.

Four performances are scheduled, for Saturday and Sunday matinees, September 7, 8-14, 15, at 3 p.m.

Angene Feves returns to play "Alice", working the puppet and speaking for her. Geddis and Martin have an actor's field day playing all the other parts except a bird and an oyster or two.

Favorite chapters from both "Alice in Wonderland" and "Through the Looking Glass" that lend themselves to staging are included. Projected scenery is used to achieve a dream quality.

Produced in Boston, 1933 (Geddis-Martin opened their first theatre on Beacon Hill in 1931) "Alice" has been performed since then touring the College, Little Theatre, Art Museum circuit of New England, and in California at the M.H. De Young Museum in San Francisco, the Art Center in La Jolla, and the Santa Barbara Museum of Art, as well as on stage at Tantamount.

According to the announcement, the production is "to entertain playgoers of all ages except the very young; it is not suitable for children under seven."

Advance ticket reservations are a "must". All seats $1.50.

'Come Blow Your Horn' at Studio

Next at the Studio Theatre-Restaurant in Carmel, following the close of the summer musical season this week, is the fun-filled comedy "Come Blow Your Horn" which opens September 6.

With its 677 performances on Broadway, Neil Simon established himself in the top rank of comic playwrights. His stature has since been confirmed by hits like "Barefoot in the Park" and "The Odd Couple" which were presented at the Studio last fall.

In "Come Blow Your Horn," Simon mixes a stodgy businessman, his bewildered wife, their playboy son and a runaway younger brother in an interplay of comic complications that delighted reviewers and audiences alike. Two girls, one dumb and one smart, keep the brothers occupied between confrontations with their parents.

Directed by Gary Eldridge, "Come Blow Your Horn" will run Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at the Studio for seven weekends from September 6 through October 20. Reservations for dinner and show or show alone may be made at 624-1661 or 624-2321.

"Good cooking is universal, regardless of politics!" declares the introduction to Top Secret Recipes produced and distributed by the Carmel Women's Democratic Club and new selling for a mere 50 cents.

J. S. Wood of Carmel Valley contributed the cover design and breezy decorations for this snappy little loose leaf book that is printed on stiff paper between hard covers so you can stand it up and flip over the pages for easy reading while you cook.

We've chosen four recipes at random to give you an idea of what you will get if you contact Mrs. Leonard Cohen of Carmel Hills Dr., Carmel, 624-5575, or Mrs. Robert Coxe of Tierra Grande, Carmel Valley, 624-4297.

CHICKEN PAPRIKA

Melt 1 cube butter in a Dutch oven, electric frying pan or casserole with tight cover. Saute 4 sliced onions until soft and brown. Add 2 heaping T. paprika. Stir mixture and place on top a large disjointed chicken. Cover and cook over slow heat (or in a slow oven) until chicken is tender. Remove chicken and add 1 cup sour cream to the stock. Salt to taste. Pour over chicken and serve with noodles or rice.

FISH WITH SOUR CREAM

4 slices of salmon (or any fish fillets)
1/2 pint sour cream
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. worcestershire sauce
Rings of green pepper and onion

Place fillets in well-greased casserole or pan. Add seasonings to sour cream and pour over fish. Top with pepper and onion rings. Cover and bake for 10 minutes at 400. Remove cover and bake for 10 more minutes.

AVOCADO FLUFF

Melt 1 box lime jello in 1 cup hot pineapple juice. When set beat until fluffy. Add 1 small can of evaporated milk which has been whipped according to directions on the can, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1/2 tsp salt, juice of 1/2 lemon.

Strain or run through blender 2 avocados and mix with 3 T. crushed pineapple. Combine ingredients and pour into mold.

FRESH APPLE BREAD

1 cup grated green apples (juice included)
1/2 cup shortening
2 eggs, beaten
1/4 tsp. salt
2 cups flour
1/2 tsp. vanilla
1 1/2 T. buttermilk
1 tsp. soda
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and apple. Measure sifted flour and sift again with soda and salt. Add dry ingredients, then the buttermilk and vanilla. Dust nuts lightly with flour and fold in. Bake 1 hour at 350 in greased loaf pan. Sprinkled 3 T. sugar and 1/2 tsp. cinnamon on top before baking for added sweetness.

Family reunion unites seven brothers apart for 10 years

The Valley home on Laurel Drive of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Adam, formerly of Monterey, was the scene Sunday, August 18 of a long anticipated family reunion.

It had been over 10 years since Mrs. Adam's sons, the seven Kirby brothers, who were all born and raised in Monterey, had had the opportunity of being home at the same time. It was also an opportunity to celebrate the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Adam.

Attending the family dinner at 7:00 p.m. after an afternoon of picture taking and visiting were Messrs. and Mesdames Joseph A. Kirby, daughters

Vicki and Patti of San Jose; Alan A. Kirby, daughter Sharlyn Ann and son Stephen of Seaside; Robert L. Kirby, sons Robert and Daniel Adam Kirby, Seaside; Donald A. Kirby of San Jose; S. Sgt. & Mrs. James E. Kirby, sons Jay and Charles; Norman Okla, whose visit precipitated the affair; Seaman 2nd Class Charles M. Kirby of the U.S.S. Oriskany stationed in Oakland for repairs; Richard J. Kirby and Miss Rhonda Wilson of San Jose; Mrs. John L. Fry, Mr. Adam's sister, beloved Aunt Mabel to all the boys of Chowchilla, California; and Mr. and Mrs. Adam.

Nancy Thompson weds James Eskilson in joint ceremony

MRS. JAMES ESKILSON

Nancy Jeanne Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Thompson, Jr. of Carmel, became the bride of James Joseph Eskilson of Santa Barbara at rites held Sunday, August 18, at the San Carlos Cathedral in Monterey.

Father Virgil Cordano, OFM of the Santa Barbara Mission and the Reverend David Hill of All Saints' Episcopal Church, Carmel, officiated at the joint Roman Catholic-Episcopalian ceremony held at four o'clock in the historic church.

Arrangements of white and yellow chrysanthemums and gladiolas decorated the church and the pews were marked with large white satin bows. Mr. Ben Azevedo was at the organ.

The petite brunette bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of white linen styled with an empire bodice and A-line silhouette. Venise lace bordered the sabrina neckline and the chapel train. A cluster of venise lace held an English silk illusion veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Sharon Smith of Carmel, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Beth Thompson (sister of the bride), Mary Grace Lobrovich, Sheila Clevenger, and Mrs. Robert L. Faretta were dressed alike in floor length yellow linen gowns trimmed with venise lace. Wide yellow bows combined with white carnations and yellow rosebuds were in their hair and they carried nosegays of the same flowers tied with yellow satin streamers.

Dean Reed, Jim's roommate at the University of California at Santa Cruz, served as best man, and seating the guests were Nancy's brother, Lawrence Thompson, Robert Lubin, Robert Faretta, and the groom's brother, Russel J. Eskilson, Jr.

The Tennis Ranch in the Carmel Valley was the setting for the reception, where a buffet supper was served and there was dancing on the terrace to Mike Marotta's orchestra. Candelit tables were set on the lawn around the pool.

Mrs. Thompson greeted her guests in a deep pink linencostume with which she wore matching accessories and a corsage of tropicana rosebuds.

The bride, a graduate of Carmel High School, attended the University of California at Davis for two years and will continue her studies at the University of California at Santa Barbara. She is the sister of Beth Lawrence, William, Robert and Douglas Thompson, all of Carmel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Thompson, Sr., of Pacific Grove are her grandparents.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel J. Eskilson of Santa Barbara, is a graduate of the University of California at Santa Cruz, where he was an honor student in the History Department. He is the brother of Russel J. Eskilson, Jr., and Randal Eskilson of Santa Barbara. His grandmother, Mrs. Flora Kontje of Santa Barbara also attended the ceremony.

When they left for a honeymoon trip to the Pacific Northwest the bride was wearing an orange knit dress with an orange and white striped coat white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The young couple will live in Santa Barbara.

LIMA BOUND

As pumpkins and touches of Fall begin to appear about the Valley, one of our favorite families enplanes for Lima, Peru and Springtime all over again. The Doctors Betty and John Davis of the Hastings Reservation are the fortunate couple who will be spending the year in South America on a National Science Foundation grant awarded to John for a National Historical study of the Annual Cycle of the Andean Sparrow. Their children, Carole and Steven will enroll in the American School of Lima, a private school in the suburbs which is made up of grades kindergarten through high school. Their term has already begun so the Valley youngsters will be starting two weeks late.

The Davis family's fascinating collection of pets used in scientific research have all been farmed out to various friends throughout the Valley. Including the foxes (two little kits adopted by the Davises when the mother was killed) who will continue their domesticated life with a family "up the hill" and their famous owl who has moved from his cupboard in their kitchen to a year's residency in an aviary on the reservation. The latter very nearly became a feast for one of his fox friends.

During their hectic packing to meet the Queens Line sailing date one of them shot to the top of the refrigerator and caught the owl in his midflight from the cupboard. Fortunately his "family" came to the rescue and returned their feathered (minus a few) friend to the safety of his cupboard as they returned to their busy packing schedule.

One of the many social events planned by their many friends was the informal farewell co-hosted by Mrs. Rex Pryer and Mrs. John Marks. Attending the potluck picnic were Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Graham Matthews, Kim and Weegie, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee, Geoffry, Sandra and Christine, Mrs. Louise Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Doyt Early, Mrs. Caroline Tugeland Gaylen, Col. and Mrs. Anders Larson, Mary Martha Brown, Mrs. Jack Longfellow, Pascal, Dennis and Lauren, Mrs. and Mrs. John Tregea, Mr. E. H. Lefors, and Mrs. George Gregory, Shannon, Robin, Leslie, Kim, Skipper, Zane and Molly.

DRAPER CHILDREN

Mr. and Mrs. Don Draper welcomed home their children, Kathy and Kim who have been visiting relatives in the East since shortly after school was out. Kathy spent a week with her grandfather, Leroy Draper of Brockton, Mass., followed by a month in Maine with her grandmother, Mrs. Edith Shey. She was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Fencer at Flye-Point, Brookline, Me. Their daughter, Mary Lou spent last summer in the Valley as a guest of the Drapers.

Kim spent the summer at Bryantville, Mass., enjoyed a camping trip to Echo Lake, New Hampshire, and visited with friends at the Draper's former home in Bridgewater, Mass.

Their son, Don, Jr., returns soon to enter his sophomore year at Carmel High School after a summer spent as waterfront counsellor at Crystal Lake, a children's camp formerly owned by his grandparents in Maine.

If the lovely "wahini" seen about the Village recently looked familiar, its because it was a former resident, Barbara Viljoen, who now calls Honolulu home. Before flying to the Mainland, she spent a week on Kona with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Viljoen who formerly lived on Rancho Road and had an opportunity to see her nephew Bill Viljoen, and his friend Peter Granoff who arrived to spend the summer.

She was met at the San Francisco airport after a spectacular full moon flight from Hilo. In addition to her visits with family and friends in the Valley she spent some time with her brother and sister-in-law, the Ben Viljoens, and their family at their cabin at Lake Tahoe.

ALASKAN TRIP

Daily catches of shrimp, Alaskan crab, salmon, and abalone as described by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harlander and their children Cindy and Charles have Valley fishermen of all ages yearning to try their luck in Alaska.

The Live Oak Lane family have recently returned from a trip north.

For Ann it was a homecoming since they visited where she grew up around Ketchikan and Juneau.

Saturday and SundayTwo day horse show at CV Trail and Saddle Club

Carmel Valley Trail and Saddle Club officials report that entries already received for their annual horse show, traditionally held on Labor Day weekend, promise to make this the largest show in the history of the club. The two day show, held at the club grounds on Garzas road in Carmel Valley, will open on Saturday, August 31 at 9:30 a.m. with a novice cutting horse class and close on Sunday, September 1 with gymkhana events.

Owners of registered Quarter horses, Appaloosas, Morgans, Paints, purebred Arabians, Tennessee Walking horses, Palominos, and Half-Arabians will have the opportunity to show their horses both in halter and performance classes on Sunday. An especially large group of Morgan horses is expected to attend. A variety of both English and western events will be offered for the open classes.

A team jumping event, carriage class and Tennessee Walking class will add color and excitement for the spectators.

The traditional ranch breakfast featuring ham and eggs and pancakes will be served on Sunday morning beginning at 7:30. A snack bar will be open both days and a Kiddie Korral has been planned for child care during show hours.

Post entries are now being accepted up until noon on Saturday, August 31. For further information write Mrs. Ruth Bishop, P.O. Box 521, Carmel Valley, California or telephone 659-2837.

Lines From Lois

"Dear Mrs. Renk:

Your Salesmen are Something Else!"

Well yes, I rather think they are. In the first place, they aren't salesmen, they are finders. They find a home for buyers, and they find buyers for a home. And in the second place, they're ASSOCIATES, and this means they not only "look" for you on their own, but they consult with one another constantly to be sure they haven't missed a possibility in a home which will exactly meet your needs. And when they've done their challenging job of finding the right buyer for the right home, no "salesmanship" is needed; it only remains for the sale to be completed competently on terms acceptable to both sides. I think you will enjoy the services of salesmen who are "something else."
